A PRISONER BANDIED ABOUT

THREE COURTS DENIED BANK CLERK A HEARING.

West Side and Jefferson Market Magistrates Said the Case Was Without Their Province and Tombs Court Was Closed McAdoo Is Appealed To.

Cornewall A. Arnold, who lives at 541 West 132d street, wandered about New York for three hours yesterday with Detective Stringer trying to find a Magistrate who would arraign Arnold on a charge of stealing $1.425 from the branch of the Corn Exchange Bank at Seventysecond street and Columbus avenue. where he was a clerk. After visiting three courts and Chief Magistrate McAdoo, Arnold was still held at Police Headquarters vesterday afternoon. His arraignment will take place to-day or possibly to-morrow.

The prisoner was arrested on Friday afternoon at 111 Broadway. It was nearly 11 o'clock yesterday morning when he appeared in the West Side court in West $175 and consisted of gold cuff buttons. Rosenthal was arrested in 1909 on a charge Fifty-fourth street. Lawrence Dunham, diamond set cuff buttons, two sets of manager of the Seventy-second street branch, was there to make out the complaint. The clerks drew the papers and everything was ready for the arraigument when Magistrate Freschi refused to entertain the complaint.

GRAND JURY TRIES TO CUT THE KNOT WITH INDICTMENTS.

Indicted trowd Accused of Buying Up Mortgaged Property in Order to Conreal the Ownership From the Mortgagees Two Arrests; More Coming.

Detectives from the District Attorney's office started out vesterday to round up a gang that has been making trouble for owners of mortgages when the latter resorted to foreclosure proceedings to get their money. Jacob Spiro, a real estate man of 116 Nassau street, and Lulu Banford of 260 Barrow street, Jersey City, were arrested early in the day, and last night the detectives were seeking for another man and three other women who are wanted either as witnesses or principals. The man the detectives were ment at 323 East Sixteenth street was most anxious to find is Irving W. Rosenthal, a notary public with an office at 192 Nassau street, who is now out on of having acknowledged the signature to a deed of a person whom he had never This charge is connected directly with the one on which Mr. Rosenthal is

For Christmas— A Pianola or a Pianola Piano

What the Pianola Will Mean in Your Home:

IT WILL MEAN that you can have music—the best of music—whenever you want it.

It will mean that you will always have an ever-ready means of entertaining friends. It will mean a constantly growing familiarity with an abundance of beautiful music which you may not, at present, even realize is in existence. It will mean an important educational factor for the children—a method of making them familiar with the world's great composers, thus supplying a deficiency in the educational system of most schools. It will mean that you can familiarize yourself with the new grand operas that are to be sung at the Metropolitan Opera House this winter, in advance of their production; or it will keep you in touch with the successes of the comic opera stage.

And above all it will mean that instead of just listening to music, you can play it. No one can tell you the tremendous fascination of producing music. You must experience it yourself. And when you do, you will realize that for the first time in your life you are learning what real musical enjoyment is.
